

JOHAN VAN ZUL

COUNTRY DIRECTOR - SOUTH AFRICA
THE LEADERSHIP CIRCLE

Johan is a registered Psychologist (HPCSA) and Executive Coach with 35 years of experience in human and organizational potential assessment and development. My areas of competence include organisational development, change management, leadership development, team development, coaching and organisational culture transformation, human potential assessment.

For the past 15 years, his primary focus has been Leadership Development. His passion is to contribute to the growth and evolvement of leaders, teams and organizations to new levels of competence, for them to successfully navigate the complexity of the future. Johan is specifically interested in the development of collective organizational leadership capacity. Collective leader capabilities that not only understand internal organizational issues but also quickly understand and adapt to changing external conditions. To prepare leaders to be ready and able to deal with future challenges.

He also challenges the current ways of teaching and consulting and invest time and effort into the development of new virtual learning methodologies and platforms.

In his drive to stay at the front of modern leadership thinking and practice, and also to widen my reach, Johan has established a partnership with The Leadership Circle and holds the TLC distribution rights for South Africa since 2007.
